Executive Director
Freedom Calls Foundation

Brooklyn Heights, New York 11201

Dear Mr. Harlow:

We truly appreciate the support to the U.S. military your organization is providing with communication network services free of charge to the military and its members. As the Freedom Calls Foundation Mission states, tours of duty in wartime separate and estrange families; your initiative keeps Servicemembers "closer to home". U.S. forces here in Southwest Asia now have the opportunity to truly be part of special family occasions, including births and graduations.

Servicemembers' number one morale support wish is communicating with loved ones at home. Freedom Calls Foundation has demonstrated great energy and commitment in providing this capability.

We thank Freedom Calls Foundation for all you have done and continue to do for our servicemembers. Your actions demonstrate true American pride in supporting our U.S. forces, greatly enhancing their morale as they endeavor in the Global War on Terrorism.

Sincerely,

Antonio M. Taguba
Major General, US Army
Deputy Commanding General Support
